The Franklin County Saddle Club would like to offer you the opportunity to advertise at our 15-acre equestrian facility, in our monthly newsletter and on our web site. Your advertising will help support a non-profit organization whose mission is to promote the association of horsemen and support youth interest in horsemanship.

You will receive the following:

- A 2' X 4' enameled metal sign with your business name and phone number, which will be displayed prominently on an arena panel in our main show arena so both exhibitors and spectators can view it during all events and activities. This is a one-color sign with your choice of color.
- A listing of your name and phone number in our monthly newsletter, and your name and hometown on our website. We will also showcase one or more businesses as space in the newsletter permits.
- Advertising is $175 for the first calendar year, which includes the cost of producing the sign. Renewals are $75 per calendar year thereafter.

The Franklin County Saddle Club has been an active part of the equine community since 1956. Activities and events at our facility draw thousands of exhibitors and spectators annually. This broad-based advertising will ensure your business is well represented throughout the year.

Sincerely,

The Franklin County Saddle Club
